

MN FCCLA Trading Pin Contest

Design a pin design

Minnesota students at National Conference “trade” pins with other state delegates. These pins represent something special about their state. (About state flower, state shape, state tourist sites or something about MN FCCLA)

- What? Design a new pin for use as a trading pin at National FCCLA Conferences.
- When? Deadline for receiving submissions: March 29, 2018
- Why? Minnesota FCCLA we would like members to help in designing a new pin! An appropriate winning design may be used for the 2018 trading pin. Trading pins are used as networking items at National Meeting where delegates trade with delegates from other states. This means your design could be seen across the nation!
- Who? Any member is eligible to submit a design.
When creating your design, remember the following criteria.

Make the artwork a good representation of our state, it’s special features, history or tourism.

YOU MAY NOT USE TRADEMARKED ITEMS IN THE PIN DESIGN. (Logo of FCCLA is trademarked, other designs that have been copy written or have a trademark.)

- 1) Include MN FCCLA on the pin
- 2) Do not use a year (such as 2018-2019) in the pin design. (The pin will be used for multiple years.)
- 3) The pin design should be submitted in two sizes: Please submit two colored copies of your design in these sizes.
 - A. One 1” square *The same pin design but as a 5 inch design.
 - B. 5”square* of the same design

*Pin designs and details need to be visible as a 1 inch to 1 and 1/4 inch design.
Note: Small or intricate details will not show up
*The same pin design but as a 5 inch design.
- 4) Please submit two copies of your design, one 1” square and one larger 5”square
- 5) The State FCCLA Office reserves the right to use and/or modify any submitted artwork to accommodate production of the pin.
- 6) Identify the person submitting the design and send all designs received by March 29, 2018 to this address: MN FCCLA-Pin Design contest, PO 131386, Roseville, MN 55113
Or email your design and send to: wendy.ambrose@mnfcla.org
